

IN MONTANA, WE SEE THE FOREST AND THE TREES (THE RIVERS, TOWNS AND RANCHES, TOO).

Thanks to the conservationists, anglers, loggers, ranchers, snowmobilers, hunters and others who worked together on a new approach to forest stewardship in the Beaverhead-Deerlodge, Blackfoot-Clearwater and the Yaak. Thanks also to Senator Jon Tester whose Forest Jobs and Recreation Act aims to set those ideas into motion. The bill is supported by Montana Wilderness Association, Trout Unlimited and others, as well as Montana-based local sawmills. Learn how this new approach will crank up Montana jobs, while protecting clean water and pristine backcountry at MontanaForests.org.
