

OUR FUTURE IS OUR FORESTS.

Montana forests provide clean water, public access, hunting and fishing and family-wage jobs. That's why Montanans from all walks of life rallied around innovative new stewardship practices that reflect these values. And why Senator Jon Tester has introduced the Forest Jobs and Recreation Act. The bill is supported by Montana Wilderness Association, Trout Unlimited and others, as well as Montana-based local sawmills. See how it will work in the Beaverhead-Deerlodge, Blackfoot-Clearwater and the Yaak at MontanaForests.org.
