

THINK OUR FORESTS ONLY INSPIRE WEEKEND PLANS?

The forests that inspire us to fish, hike, camp and ride have inspired even bigger plans. They're locally directed stewardship solutions that will protect clean water and pristine backcountry while fueling local economies with good jobs. And thanks to Senator Tester's Forest Jobs and Recreation Act, they'll soon be put into action — improving our forests every day of the week. The bill is supported by Montana Wilderness Association, Trout Unlimited and others, as well as Montana-based local sawmills. For details, visit MontanaForests.org.
